Jett.

Weather cloudy and disagreeable. Farmers have begun cribbing their corn.

The land owners and tenant farmers are thoroughly aroused of the effect of the tobacco warehouse combination.

A patriotic neighbor of the Duckhorn neighborhood has a quilt which, completed, will be a perfect map of Kentucky. The bounties are marked by colors, their names being roistered, and the rivers are indicated. It will be a curiosity well worthy of a conspicuous place at the 10th Fair in 1892.

A dame Rumor predicts two weddings in high life near Duckhorn's at early date. "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," but we've the Madame is about right time, at least there is a Lexington and a gentleman from the town who are frequently seen in portions, and they make no secret of their intentions. We can, gentlemen, if you take risk, be good to them.

Tobacco growers of Woodford meeting at Versailles on Saturday last week and the growers of Fogg's district expect a boom in Lexington on the 12th of this month.

Only the Graefenburg correspondent must be young and inexperienced, or he would have learned long since that two-thirds of the people who are frequently seen in portions, and they make no secret of their intentions. We can, gentlemen, if you take risk, be good to them.

A game law having expired, there was waged a war of extermination against the birds and rabbits. For the past ten days the slaughter has been fearful. From early dawn the report of the gun is heard in all directions, and not until darkness kindly shelters them do the weary little animals find a temporary rest, only to meet their fate another day.

Two new residences have been erected at Jett this season, that of Mr. L. A. Trumbo and another, the property of Mr. Lamb. Mr. W. S. Fogg has also erected a neat dwelling in the suburbs. Jett is not on a boom but her improvements are a solid and permanent kind. BULLDOGS.

Pneumonia

Is the only disease which seems to thoroughly baffle the physicians skill. Thousands of people die of it annually that might be saved if they would use the medicine in the world there is a specific for that dread disease, viz: Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, which has saved the lives of hundreds of people after having failed to do so for the physicians when both lungs were badly involved. There is no remedy known to man that equals Dr. Hale's Household Ointment for the cure of Pneumonia. It cures the severest cases. It should be in every home in America. Price 25 and 50 cents per box. Sold at South Side and P. H. CARPENTER.

The "Kentucky Evangelist" in Wick.

The Rev. G. O. Barnes, the "Kentucky Evangelist," brought to a close last night his ten days' mission in Wick. From the very first the services, which were held in the New Rifle Hall, were attended by crowds of people, every evening the hall being filled to its utmost capacity. The extraordinary earnestness of Mr. Barnes' addresses and the dramatic power and natural eloquence manifested in his preaching have been the means of awakening great interest amongst all classes of the community. Possessing no little culture and a peculiar vein of dry American humor, Mr. Barnes is master of a novel and taking style of address and a deep understanding the art of preaching in a plain-spoken, straightforward, yet sympathetic manner, that he has succeeded in rousing attention and excitement, perhaps unprecedented in the religious history of Wick. The reverend gentleman has won for himself quite a host of admirers and well-wishers, but even his best friends have been compelled to regret the occasional prominence he has given to some of his opinions, especially those relating to the origin and reign of physical and moral evil—questions that belong more to the domain of abstract theology and metaphysics than to that of evangelistic preaching. On Saturday evening a lady rose in the audience for the purpose of refuting some of Mr. Barnes' teachings, and offered to prove his errors from the Scripture; but the reverend gentleman said he must decline to turn his meeting into a debating society, though he was quite willing to discuss the subject in private with anybody. His opponent, however, was not prepared to acquiesce in this arrangement, and turning round to the audience, advised them to read the 28th chapter of Deuteronomy, where God's judgments are clearly set forth. The lady then sat down, the closure, in the form of the singing of a hymn, having been applied. On Sunday afternoon Mr. Barnes preached in the Parish Church to a crowded congregation a sermon marked with great eloquence and power and practical common sense. In the evening he addressed a meeting in the Rifle Hall, the gates of which were besieged an hour before the service began by a densely-packed crowd, which filled the hall in less than ten minutes after the doors were opened. The hall was crammed to suffocation, and hundreds of persons were unable to gain admission had to be turned away from the doors. At the close of the service, Mr. Barnes referred to a pamphlet that had been circulated in Wick, pretending to give an exposition and criticism of his views, and said that the author of it had once interviewed him and on the strength of that had gone and published, without permission, the pamphlet, which gave an entirely untrue and misleading statement of his opinions. Mr. Barnes thanked the people of Wick for the extraordinary kindness and sympathy they had shown him, and said that his audience that night, although one of the most uncomfortably crowded he had ever addressed, yet was the most orderly and quiet he had ever seen. Mr. Barnes believes in conducting his services on true gospel lines, in making no collections at any of his meetings, and in offering the gospel without money and without price. To defray his traveling and other expenses, Mr. Barnes will to-night and to-morrow night deliver lectures, to which a charge for admission will be made, and which will doubtless be as well attended as the regular services were. An attractive feature of the evangelist meetings is the exquisite singing of his choir, two accomplished daughters, who in their pathetic renderings of sacred songs simply hold the vast audiences spell-bound. Mr. Barnes, who is accompanied by his wife, and as already mentioned, by his two daughters, has intimated his intention of returning to Wick on a Monday occasion, when he will hold a second series of meetings.—Northern Ensign, Wick, Scotland.

Farmers Mean Business.

Col. Washington Crutcher, of Franklin county, who has one of the finest farms in the State, within a few miles of the Capital, has been interviewed on the Alliance movement. Said he, "We are going to elect men to office who will serve us awhile and look after our neglected interests. The Alliance is well organized in Western and Southern Kentucky and steadily moving on the central section of the State. The Kentucky Alliance will not embody the Sub-Treasury scheme in its platform. We have abandoned that but we propose building tobacco warehouses ourselves at an early date. Both Democrats and Republicans belong to the Alliance, and we expect to support men inside the party lines who will support our measures. We expect to take a hand in all the Legislative and State office canvasses." Col. Crutcher also states the Alliance will run Dr. Clardy, of Hopkinsville, for Governor.—Lexington Transcript.

WHAT CURES?

Editorial Difference of Opinion in an Important Subject.

What is the force that ousts disease; and which is the most convenient apparatus for applying it? How far is the regular physician useful to us because we believe in him, and how far are his pills and powders and tonics only the material representatives of his personal influence on our health?

The regular doctors cure; the homoeopathic doctors cure; the Hahemannian cure; and so do the faith cures and the mind cures, and the so-called Christian scientists, and the four-dollars-and-a-half advertising itinerants, and the patent medicine men. They all hit, and they all miss, and the great difference—the result—is that when the regular doctors lose a patient no one grumbles, and when the irregular doctors lose one the community stand on end and howl.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Nature cures, but nature can be aided, hindered or defeated in the curative process. And the Commercial's contention is that it is the part of rational beings to seek and trust the advice of men of good character who have studied the human system and learned, as far as modern science lights the way, how far they can aid nature and how they can best avoid obstructing her.—Buffalo Commercial.

It is not our purpose to consider the evils that result from employing the unscrupulous, the ignorant, charlatans and quacks to prescribe for the maladies that afflict the human family. The structure and the condition of the human system. Of course "he does not know it all."—Rochester Morning Herald.

I have used Warner's Safe Cure and but for its timely use would have been, I verily believe, in my grave from what the doctors termed Bright's Disease.—D. F. Shriner, senior Editor Scioto Gazette, Chillicothe, Ohio, in a letter dated June 30, 1890.

Restored His Wife's Health.

My wife suffered for years from debility and a general breaking down of health, the result of diseases peculiar to women. A few bottles of Dr. Hale's Safe Cure restored her to perfect health. It built her up, increased her appetite and weight until she is now the picture of health. The speedy recovery of my wife from her long illness caused all my family, and several of my neighbors, to take S. S. S. As a tonic we are all delighted with it. GEORGE FLAMMER, Covington, O.

Baby Cured.

My baby had the worst case of Catarrh that I ever saw a small child afflicted with. The nasal discharge was very large and very offensive. Having some personal knowledge of the curative properties of S. S. S. I gave the baby a course of S. S. S., using nothing else. In a short time the discharge from the nose stopped, and the Catarrh was cured entirely and permanently, as there has been no return of it since.

Academy of Music.

Greenwood Opera Company, lately costumed and strong in its presentation of Offenbach's opera called "The Brigands" at the Academy of Music last night to a full house. "The Brigands" is by no means a new opera, but it has been given new life by its great success at the Casino in New York, and by the hits on the road made with it by the Carleton Opera Company and the Greenwood Opera Company playing it here. It is understood that the libretto was used in the work of W. S. Gilbert, but it so closely follows the original book, and is so subservient to the music composed for it by the great master of comic opera, that little of the Gilbert flavor is discerned in the story. Gilbert is satirical or nothing. "The Brigands" libretto is simply funny, without any trace of Gilbert is nothing in it. The music is light and always pleasing. Miss Marie Greenwood has a surprisingly good voice, sweet, clear, and made friends with her audience immediately. What is remarkable in comic opera, she knows how to sing, and gave a sample of her accomplishments by introducing Ardit's Waltz Song, which was encored.—The Daily Picayune, New Orleans, La., Nov. 13, in the great opera Bocaccio.

Bridgeport.

Mrs. Laura Flanagan was called to Winchester the week to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sue Flanagan.

Misses Mary Lee and Julia Sanders visited relatives at St. Louis last week. Elder George Darsie's description of Des Moines, Iowa, and the history given by him of the great Christian Convention, in this neighborhood, Sunday, at Bridgeport, was quite interesting.

Mr. Billy Wilson, who formerly resided in this community, but now a member of the typographical department of the Louisville Post, spent ten days, in company with his wife, visiting relatives in this neighborhood. As the bird was out, he utilized most of his time in hunting. Fourteen partridges were killed by him with three shots. Good for Billy.

Mrs. Salina Armstrong, widow of the late Sam Armstrong, received a telegram from Patterson, Texas, announcing the illness of her only daughter, Mrs. P. F. Donigan. She rushed to that point instantly, but before she reached the bed side of her daughter death had relieved her of her intense suffering. She died of dropsy at 2 o'clock a. m., October the 27th. She had been sweet and loving, position, smiling when the shadow of death spread on her sweet face. Her many friends and relatives in Kentucky sympathize with the bereaved husband, mother and brothers in their great loss.
Mr. Wallace North and sister of Carroll county, have been visiting the family of Mr. Ben Elliott for two weeks.

Mr. Wilder Dupuy and wife have returned from Hawesville after an absence of several weeks visiting relatives.

Messrs. P. C. Towles and Wm. Jackson spent several days in Louisville recently selling cattle. They report the market quite good.
Mrs. Pink Crockett visited relatives in Lexington and Jessamine county this week.

The Teachers' Association to be held in Bridgeport on Saturday, the 15th, will be an occasion of unusual interest.

A few few votes polled for Congressman on Tuesday. Not enough interest taken to reach fifty votes in the Bridgeport precinct.

We missed the ROUNDABOUT so much on Saturday morning. The papers went to Lawrenceburg and did not reach here until Monday. We know it was not the fault of the editor of that dear old paper.

FINE ROOFING.

What People Have to say Relative to Manilla Roofing.

To the Citizens of Frankfort and Franklin County:
I have just finished a job of this roofing for Lev Van Meter Bros., of over 600 squares of Manilla Roofing, and also for W. H. Cassidy of over 150 squares, also a roof in Cynthiana for W. H. Wilson of over 400 squares which all of them claim it to be one of the best and cheapest roofs that has ever been in this country. It will pay any one in need of roofing to call on R. J. Cassidy, 248 West Third street, Lexington, Ky., and also see samples and guarantees for ten years on roofs given by W. H. Fay & Co., Camden, N. J.

Also any one needing ceiling or sheeting paper we will furnish it cheaper than any house in the United States, according to the quality of the goods. This goods has been in use over a quarter of a century in the United States. It has proven to give satisfaction beyond any doubt.

R. J. CASSIDY, Lexington, Ky.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 13, 1890.

To the Residents of Frankfort and Vicinity:

This is to certify that we know all about R. J. Cassidy, his character, habits, etc., and hereby state over our own signature that we will carry out to the letter all contracts made by him for the use of our manilla goods. Call and see him; he has the facts to prove our claim.

W. H. FAY & CO., F. D. STAFFORD, Manager.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 13, 1890.

R. J. CASSIDY, Esq., Lexington, Ky.

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your request for an opinion of the merits of the "Fay Manilla Roofing Paper" we have to observe that our use of it for the past two years, on our lumber sheds (structures that call for good roofs), as well as the experience of old customers, to whom we have sold it extensively, has been eminently satisfactory, and we feel no hesitancy in recommending it.

Truly,

SHIVERS & MOFFETT.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 11, 1890.

MR. R. J. CASSIDY:

DEAR SIR:—At your request for my opinion in regard to roof furnished by W. H. Fay & Co., Camden, N. J., I beg to say we have our depot covered by their roofing, and I take great pleasure in recommending it in every particular. I have had considerable experience with other roofing, and I have no hesitation in saying it is a superior roofing. I own a house covered by this roofing, which, being perfectly flat, gave me considerable trouble. I first had it covered with tin, then with gravel and at last was compelled to put Fay Company roofing on it. I have had no trouble with the roof since, notwithstanding the fact that it was put on by an ordinary laborer, who had no experience in roofing.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM COFFIN, Agent.

I will wager from $100 to $1,000 that this roofing will outlast iron, tin or shingles. This offer is open for 12 months.

Bridgeport Bros., Agents for Franklin county, and R. J. Cassidy will be responsible for any contracts they may make.

R. J. CASSIDY.

If you suffer with bad digestion, constipation, nervousness, palpitation of the heart, etc., call on Dr. Rea, at the Capital Hotel, Saturday, Nov. 22, and get relieved, if he can not relieve you he will tell you so. ## FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 8, 1890.

Sudden Death.

Prof. Joseph Otto Mauer, the popular and well known music teacher in this city, died suddenly at his home on Ann street Thursday afternoon, about one o'clock, with heart disease. He had been sick on Wednesday night, was still feeling badly and lying down when a pupil came into receive a music lesson. He arose from his bed and went in to an adjoining to give him instruction and in a few minutes fell a corpse in the floor.

The deceased was about 40 years of age, was born in Bavaria and came to this country when 16 years of age. He located in New York and afterwards enlisted as musician in the 4th U. S. Infantry. He came to this city first in the spring of 1871, when two companies of the headquarters of his regiment were stationed here. When the regiment was ordered west he went with it, but after his term of service expired he returned and has since been a resident of this city. On the 8th of January, 1880, he married Miss Kate McClellan, of Hamilton, Ohio, who still survives him. During his residence in this city he made a host of friends, to whom his sudden and untimely death was a great shock.

The heart broken widow has the deepest sympathy of the entire community in her great affliction. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, from Ascension Church.

Don't Forget to Register.

Polls will be opened in each ward of the city Monday morning, and will remain open on Tuesday and Wednesday, for the registration of the names of voters who expect to cast their votes at the city elections to be held in this city—for Councilmen on the first Saturday in December, and for School Trustees, on the first Saturday in January. Each voter must go in person and register in the ward in which he resides. The following officers have been appointed by the County Judge to conduct the registration:

First Ward—R. H. Gayle and T. McClure, Physicians; Judges: John S. Harrod, Clerk.

Second Ward—Wm. S. Dehoney and A. B. Waggoner, Judges; G. T. Church, Clerk.

Third Ward—Jas. W. Heffner and J. J. Quinn, Judges; W. C. Williams, Clerk.

Scooped the Ribbons.

At the Owen Fair, Dr. C. C. Lewis, of Stamping Ground, took the premium on best mare colt, foal of 1889; on best harness mare, one-year-old and under two; on best harness gelding two years old and under three; on best harness stallion two years old and under three, and certificate on best brood mare with one or more foals at her side. It also won the yearling trotting race with Finette, by Leeward by Goward; dam by Meringo, son of Orion. There were five entries in the race and three heats were trotted in the mud. In Leeward Dr. Lewis was one of the best of Onward's get, being only five years old and having performed to his credit.

Jack Morton Dead.

Jack Morton, a well known colored man who has been dying a long time in this city for a number of years, died at his home in the city on Sunday. His funeral took place Monday afternoon and the remains were interred with the honors of the order of Friendship.

Charity Lodge and Douglas Camp, of both of which bodies he was a member, turned out in full force, headed by Bailey's Brass Band. He was an honest straight forward man, and a quiet, good, tizen, highly respected by both white and colored.

Another Lot Sold.

Mr. Jos. Robinson has purchased from Col. L. P. Tariton a lot fronting forty feet on Steele street and running back one hundred and fifty feet, for $1,450, and will erect a neat frame residence upon it. The lot lies on the corner of an alley and is very desirable.

Local Option Defeated.

In a closely contested election at Stamping Ground, on Tuesday, local option was defeated by a majority of twenty-two. In order to start a saloon in that place, however, a man will have to pay a local license of five hundred dollars, in addition to State and county license.

Married in Cincinnati.

Mr. Harry I. Todd Crittenden, son of Col. R. H. Crittenden, and Miss Willie Bakewell, of Louisville, were quietly married at Cincinnati, last week. The groom has recently been in the employ of Messrs. Congleton Bros., in this city, but is now on the road as a traveling man. The marriage was quite a surprise to the friends of the young couple.

Will Enlarge Their Capacity.

Messrs. Mason & Foard Co. will remove their shoe factory to the Edenville Penitentiary in the next thirty days and will greatly enlarge their chair factory, as the demand for chairs of their make is increasing so rapidly that they can not supply the trade with their present facilities. The machinery for the shoe factory will be shipped by boat from this city to Edenville.

Agent of the Midland.

Mr. Howard Orblison, of this city, has been appointed agent of the Kentucky Midland Railway in this city, to succeed Mr. Geo. Bryant, who resigned on the first of the month to accept a position with the Cincinnati Southern Road. Howard is a young man, but if close application to business and polite attention to the patrons of the road are the requisites for a good agent, he will certainly make a first class one.

Trotting Meeting.

The Frankfort Trotting Association will hold a two days' meeting next week—Wednesday and Thursday, the 11th and 12th. The races will be for the following classes: 2:50, 2:40 and 3:00, and the purse $25 in each race. The races will take place at time advertised, if there is a good day and track, otherwise they will be postponed from day to day until finished. Standard stakes and special rates will be announced later. The entrance fee in each race will be ten per cent. of the purse, and entries will close on Monday next, November 10th.

Distressing Accident.

Little Pattie Keenon, daughter of Mr. U. Keenon, was sitting upon a table in the kitchen at the residence of her grandfather, Capt. B. C. Milan, one day last week, when some one rang the front door bell and she started to jump down to go to the door. In doing so she threw out her right hand and struck a window near her, broke out a pane of glass, which allowed her hand to go through, and as she slid down from the table the jagged edges of the glass caught her wrist and cut it horribly. Medical aid was immediately summoned and every effort was made to save the little one's hand. She is now doing as well as possible, and it is hoped her hand will be not useless, although the leaders were out in the wrist.

Remarkable Runaway.

A young man from the country was coming into town Sunday morning over the Louisville pike, in a spring wagon, with a lady and two little girls, and at the top of the hill a mile above the city, a backing strap broke, letting the vehicle run upon the horses heels, and causing it to run away. They dashed down the hill, in Second street, across the bridge, up St. Clair to Broadway, and thence to the corner of Ann, where the horse fell on a crossing and was held down by a gentleman standing on the corner. The driver succeeded in guiding the horse all that distance and prevented his running into anything, and strange to say no one was hurt and the wagon not injured, only the swing tree was broken. The females in the wagon kept their seats, did not attempt to jump out in all that mad race, and thus escaped injury.

Meeting of Tobacco Growers.

A meeting of the tobacco growers of Franklin county was held at the Court-House Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Hon. Thos. W. Scott was elected chairman and Squire G. W. Hall appointed Secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be the appointment of delegates to represent Franklin county in the Convention of Tobacco Raisers, which meets in Lexington on Wednesday, November 12th. After considerable discussion Hon. Thos. W. Scott and Messrs. Wash. Crutcher and Alex. Julian were selected as the delegates, who pledged themselves to attend the Lexington meeting. After listening to short speeches from Dr. J. C. Wilson and others, the meeting adjourned.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Major Hiram Bassett, one of the brightest Freemasons in the world, was stricken with paralysis on Saturday morning at his home in Millersburg, Bourbon county, losing the use of his arms, limbs, mind and speech, in part, and has since grown gradually worse, his death being expected at any time. He is Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge, of Kentucky, Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter, Past Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery, and Past Grand Master of the Grand Council, York Rite, and also a 3rd degree Scottish Rite Mason. An upright honorable gentleman, who made friends of all he met.

LATER—He died at noon Thursday.

Large Lemons.

Two of the largest lemons ever seen in this section are on exhibition in the window of Messrs. Chapman & Williams' drug store. They were grown by Mr. Joel Scott, of the Woodlake neighborhood, this county, and presented to Mr. Chas. G. Russell. They are fully developed, about five inches through and about 15 inches in circumference, and the two weigh 2 pounds 7 ounces.

New Ticket Agent.

Mr. Frank L. Craft, former chief train dispatcher of the Kentucky Midland Railway, has been appointed ticket agent of the L. & N. Railroad, in this city, to succeed Mr. John S. Grant, and removed back to this city to reside. Mr. Craft is an exceedingly polite and accommodating gentleman, and we are glad to know that he is to remain with us permanently.

Good, for a Dry Season.

Mr. William M. Bedford, of the Forks of Elkhorn Precinct, has brought us in a sample half peck of his Irish potato crop. They run from five to seven and a half inches in length and from two to four and a half through. For a dry season, when the potato crop was almost a failure, this is doing first rate.

Thousands Poisoned.
In a recent work on Heart Disease, Dr. Franklin Miles—the noted specialist—gives many new and startling facts. Thousands of people are slowly poisoning themselves, weakening their hearts by the use of tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol. These are heart-wipers, and it is to be feared, rapidly, thus gradually wearing it out, producing shortness of breath when exerting, pains in the side and shoulder, hungry and faint. Finally heart failure and sudden death. For weakened and irritated hearts the press everywhere highly recommend the New Heart Cure discovered by Dr. Franklin Miles, which is for sale at J. W. Gayle's drug store.

Among the Colored Citizens.

Every member of the Industrial Legion Lodge is expected to be there all next Wednesday evening, as business of importance will be brought before the body.

Let no colored man fail to register on-day.

The daughter of Mr. Louis Harris was sick at this writing.

Mr. M. C. Johnson, one of Frankfort's best known citizens, who has been quite ill for several months, is coming slowly, but he is now recently admitted as a member of the Baptist Church.

Monday night at the Opera House there was some confusion going on in the colored people's department, when one of the boys employed in the hall came running through the gallery, waving his pistol in his hand, and as a very stupid proceeding, as some innocent spectator might have been shot. Things have come to such a pass that respectable colored people will have to stay away from the Opera House altogether.

Mrs. Jeff Cook and daughter, Miss Sadie, and Misses Blanche Seales and Katie Washburn returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Louisville last week.

The resolution passed by the last Baptist Conference, forbidding Baptist churches from causing considerable differences among the church members of this city. A Baptist young man can not persuade his girl to go to his church, nor will a Methodist young man go to the Baptist church with a Baptist girl.

Several of our people left the city Monday to attend the funeral of Prof. Simmons in Louisville. He was well known here, where he made the greatest speech of his life in the Senate Chamber some years ago in behalf of the Normal School, of which the Senate ordered three thousand copies printed. He was one of the leading men of his race in the South, and wherever he located he always worked for the welfare of his colored fellow-citizens in an educational way.

The writer was a warm friend and promoter of the gifted man.

Mr. Jack Morton died at his residence in South Frankfort Sunday morning. He was a leading citizen of the E. P. and of the First Independent Baptist Church. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss. All loving hearts could be doing.

hands of his family and the lodge. The remains were interred with all the ceremonies of the U. B. F. Tuesday, the funeral procession being headed by Bailey's Band, of Georgetown.

Rev. R. H. C. Mitchell, who has for the past five years been pastor of the First Independent Baptist Church, preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation Sunday night. His address was very touching and at times the tears would steal down the faces of those who had learned to love him as their leader. When he came to the city five years ago his congregation held services in a little school-room. Now they have the finest built colored church in the city. The church building will long remain a monument to his energy and ability as a pastor.

Mr. Frank Dodson, formerly of this city, but now of Chicago, is in the city visiting his parents.

Quite a crowd of young men took in Georgetown Wednesday. Missionary meeting at St. John's A. M. E. Church Sunday at 3 p. m. All are invited.

Mr. Turner, of Lexington, is in the city visiting his brother, R. B. Turner.

SLEEP IN PEACE BY USING

PRATTS KILLER FOR BED BUGS.

This preparation is superior to all others for the following reasons: It kills the bugs instantly. It effectively destroys their eggs, therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season.

It possesses advantages over insect powders inasmuch as it can be used in places which they can not reach. Its odor is agreeable, and it is warranted not to injure carpets, linen or furniture. No fatal effects can result from its use, as it contains no poison, which fact should give it a place in every household.

Sold in large bottles at 25 cents each. For sale by W. H. AVERILL at wholesale and retail. JOHN H. STACKHOUSE & CO., SOLE AGENTS, 4-cent-6m. 632 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Ought not the patrons of a school district be ashamed of themselves if it becomes necessary for the trustees to tax each one for the purpose of purchasing a stove and fuel for their own dear children to be comfortable in the school?
If good warm and comfortable stoves can be had at home for them, would not be comfortable while they are searching for knowledge?
Not to God our fathers would be made to think more of this important matter and work more for the upbuilding and rearing of their children, to fit them for this life and then the life beyond.
Bro. Garrett Reed has just closed a week's meeting at Stoney creek, with three additions. The most peculiar circumstance of the meeting was that of one old man, presenting himself for baptism, without becoming a member of any church, claiming that he didn't know which church was right.
Has Rip Van Winkle, of the vine clad hills of LeCompte's Bottom, again entered into that sleep he is accustomed to? He will wake, ere long, only to find the thriving little village of Flag Fort still making rapid strides to a great metropolis. Rip, where art thou?
GREENIE.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. "One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she had to cough up the phlegm in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave her the same remedy with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merits of this wonderful medicine."

Rice's "Corsair."

When E. E. Rice sets out to do the spectacular something is sure to come of it. But the chief author of "Evangeline," "Adonis," and numerous other productions has never presented his numerous admirers with anything more dazzling and beautiful than to be seen in his now famous "Corsair," which is to be presented for the first time here on next Wednesday evening.
All that a ripe experience and an unlimited command of money could do towards making the "Corsair" the most gorgeous of stage spectacles has been done, and the result is a series of stage pictures of marvelous beauty, enchanting to the eye, pleasing to the ear and gratifying to the senses of all beholders. The "Corsair" affords an evening of rare enjoyment, for everything is well done. The company is a large one—numbering over forty persons—the principal parts are in the hands of competent artists, and the chorus, which is large and effective, is composed of handsome and shapely young women with fresh voices, who, clad in their dainty costumes are a special source of delight, particularly to the occupants of the front rows. Among the notable musical numbers are the three choruses in the first act: "Corairs' Bold," "Sailing Away," "Adonis' Farewell"; "The Corsair," "I'm a Dashing Pirate," and "Birban-to's song, 'Buckets of Gore,' the song of Conrad and Medora, 'Birds in the Bush' the waltz song, 'When in the West,' and Medora's two charming songs, 'I surely must Die' and 'Once upon a Time There Lived a Maiden.' The "Corsair" will draw out a full house. Advance sale of seats opens Monday morning at Barrett's news depot. No advance in prices.

A GRAND SUCCESS!

Our opening was pronounced by all a "grand success;" our new home was the admiration of our people and the many strangers that came to see us, and we want thank them all for their many good words and kindly congratulations. We promise this shall be the

PEOPLE'S STORE!

THE PEOPLE'S MART

For CLOTHING, For SHOES, For HATS,
For Furnishing Goods, and for Fine Merchant Tailoring.

We have spared no pains nor expense in the construction and the appointments of this METROPOLITAN STORE. The comforts of buyer and seller are combined, and it will be a pleasure for you to come here. We have given our people what we think we owe to them—nothing is too good for them. Beginning in 1873, with a small room and a comparatively small stock, we have extended our business each year, and, with our syndicate of stores at Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort, our purchasing power is second to none in the Southwest. This means no more nor less than that our merchandise is owned for less than the smaller dealers pay and is sold at less than theirs.

"POPULAR PRICES"

SHALL BE OUR MOTTO IN FUTURE.

The STRICTLY ONE PRICE system that will always prevail in our stores in future should make it THE MART for all.

Your child can come here and buy as cheaply as you can. You can buy as cheap as your neighbor, and you never have cause for complaint that any one bought an article at a lower price than you.
